To Whom It May Concern:

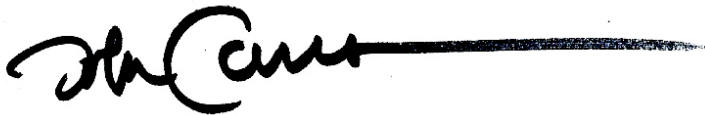

It is my pleasure to write on behalf of Claire Stenger, a multi-talented artist, writer, illustrator and animator.

Claire was a stand-out student in my animation production class in the film department at NYU Tisch School of the Arts. I found her energetic, intelligent, affable with a great sense of humor, and diligent, a hard worker who is open to improvement and making as many changes as necessary.

Claire gets the job done, and gets along well with her co-workers. She is skilled in numerous traditional and digital filmmaking technologies, including Stop Motion, Storyboarding, Photoshop, After Effects and Maya. She has imagination and wit, and excellent drawing, design and painting skills.

I highly recommend Claire Stenger to your organization.

Thank you for your interest.
